After a new pastor is in place for the parishes of the Roman Catholic Community of Attleboro, he will help to determine the sustainability of the Portuguese Sunday Mass on a permanent basis. Bishop da Cunha is very grateful to Father Flavio Gillio and Father Francisco Tchipindo of the Missionaries of Our Lady of LaSalette who have agreed to share the responsibility of celebrating the Mass in Portuguese each week. The Bishop is likewise thankful to the Provincial of the Missionaries of LaSalette whose approval was needed for this additional ministry for the community's priests.

Office of the Bishop

Most Reverend Edgar M. da Cunha, S.D.V., D.D.

Bishop da Cunha's 2020 Lenten Message: Entering in the Lenten Season

During Lent, special attention is given to three specific tenets of our Catholic faith -- almsgiving, prayer, and fasting. The foundation for these practices can be found in Matthew's Gospel chapter 6, verses 1-18. When practiced with a heart inclined toward pleasing God and personal conversion, these actions can be truly transformative, especially in light of Jesus' Paschal Mystery -- His Passion and death and Resurrection.

Lent is a time of spiritual interior conversion, penance, and sacrifice. There is a beautiful balance for faith practiced in private, for only the Lord to see, and as a Christian witness for the glory of God. When rooted in prayer, one can be assured they are keeping that balance.

It is important to include the Word of God in our Lenten practices. In Pope Francis' Apostolic Letter, Aperuit illis - instituting the Sunday of the Word of God - he reminds the faithful, "God's Word constantly reminds us of the merciful love of the Father Who calls his children to live in love. The life of Jesus is the full and perfect expression of this Divine love, which holds nothing back but offers itself to all without reserve."

Also included in these chapter 6 verses of Matthew's Gospel is The Lord's Prayer. The early Church Theologian, Origen called The Lord's Prayer, "a summary of the whole gospel" (De Oratione). In this prayer, we ask the Lord to forgive us our trespasses. Lent is an excellent time to take advantage of the Sacrament of Reconciliation or Confession: the Church's great Sacrament of penance, healing and forgiveness. Lent is the perfect opportunity for Catholics to make their required minimum yearly Confession.

Lent reminds us that we are all called to a life of holiness. The universal call to holiness should move each of us to commit to a faith well lived. In a desire to imitate Christ, the good of our actions should be to the benefit of others and to pleasing God over all other motives.

Families may wish to use these 40 days to grow in faith together; working together for the good of others, coming together in prayer, and supporting each other on the days of fast. Families can work together especially here in the Fall River diocese through many volunteer opportunities.

Families can also come together in prayer, perhaps in a pilgrimage to the newly created Museum of Family Prayer that we are blessed to have located within our diocese. Holy Cross Family Ministries, which continues the work of Venerable Patrick Peyton, has created a beautiful experience where families can come together to not only learn about prayer, but more importantly, spend time in prayer together. Father Peyton was known for two quotes that are particularly poignant to the faithful as we begin this Lenten season: "The family that prays together stays together" and "A world at prayer is a world at peace."

Like prayer and almsgiving, Jesus teaches His followers to fast not for others to see and exalt, but to give glory to God. In addition to the mandatory days of Lenten fasting, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, the faithful can use these 40 days to offer personal fasts as penance and prayer. While food may be what is typically associated with fasting, there are many other ways to sacrifice. Opening time in your schedule, offering extra time to bless others through prayer, study of the faith, or volunteering.

My prayer and my wish for all of us this Lent is to spend time in prayer and service to benefit the good of our Church without the concern for self. That each would seek a deeper conversion through conversation with the Lord in prayer, through the Scriptures, and participation in the Sacraments. May the beauty, mystery, and grace of the Catholic faith we are so blessed to profess, be more clearly evident to you this Lent than ever before.

Most Rev. Edgar M. da Cunha, S.D.V.
Bishop of Fall River

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Life can easily spin us out of control. While there are so many wonderful opportunities before us, we can also get easily distracted and exhausted. There is always something to do, respond to, or check. The clutter of our lives can take us off course, and the best remedy for getting back on track is the experience of the desert. Here we can face our demons square on, resist them, and get back on course. We desperately need the season of Lent. This simple time of year forces us into greater awareness and grounds us in what is good and true.

What weighs you down and keeps you trapped? Maybe you are trying to do too much and please too many people. It could be that your fragile self-image is always pushing you to prove yourself and find success. Anxiety and worry, ultimately due to a lack of faith, can quickly tempt you with despair. It could be that you are listening to too many voices and allowing all of the negativity that is present erode the genuine goodness in your heart and in all of God's creation. Or maybe you struggle too much with fear. Perhaps so much so that you are far too preoccupied with your own agenda and goals and left with little psychological or spiritual room to consider and respond to the plight of your neighbor. Do anger, bitterness, stubbornness, and hatred have homes in your heart? How about greed, gluttony, pride, apathy, or lust?

For many, their passions and what can be found on the internet are their downfall, and they are robbed of their inner life and freedom. What is it, specifically, that tempts you away from a childlike trust in God? Define this and use the next few weeks to allow God to chart you a course away from them. Silence, being alone, grace, honesty, struggle, tears, and dryness are all found in the desert. You will also find God and your true self in this holy place. Ready to go?
