LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We have heard the story of the Good Samaritan so many times. Have we ever realized that it is an enemy and outcast who is the hero of the story? Freed from laws that limit acts of mercy and compassion, the Samaritan becomes the example of how to love God by loving our neighbor. Our minds know what our faith teaches, and our mouths know what words to speak. Ultimately, deep down in our conscience, we know how we ought to act. Yet, as we encounter each new day, do we always do what we are called to do? Our neighbors live next to us and far away. They are down the street, sitting beside us, living in Mexico, Honduras, Ecuador, Guatemala, Poland, Russia, China, Korea, and Iraq. Our neighbors are even found in people who want to hurt us. How do we love them as Jesus asks us to? How we answer this question will determine how much we really love God.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: I've heard that faith is a theological virtue. What does that mean?

Answer: To say a virtue is theological means that it comes as a gift from God. St. Thomas Aquinas, a Dominican monk who crafted the famous arguments for the existence of God, wrote: "This alone is the true knowledge of God: to know that God is beyond knowing." God is transcendent. This word comes from the Latin "transcendere," meaning "to climb beyond." When something is transcendent, it exists beyond our normal range of experience. Philosopher Peter Kreeft put it simply: "God is always more."

While God created us in His image and likeness, too often we re-create Him in ours. We project our deepest hopes, our subliminal fears, and our hidden dreams, and conjure up our own image of what God could be. Yet God can never be limited to our own perception of Him.

That's where faith comes in. We read in the Catechism that "faith is the theological virtue by which we believe in God and believe all that He has said and revealed to us and all that the Holy Church proposes for our belief" (CCC 1814). We can know God through reason, to a point. As human beings, we want to know and understand the world around us, but God isn't in the world around us. He's beyond it. The best way to come to know God is not through our own clever mental maneuvering, but through trusting in God's revelation of Himself. We might think we know who God is, but the only way we can have any idea is if we trust, through the virtue of faith, who He has revealed Himself to be.

PRAYER LINE

We are blessed to have a wonderful group of people who pray for individuals in need, whether it be a physical, mental, or spiritual illness. If you know someone you would like to place on the prayer line, (with their permission), please contact Antonia Erwin at (508) 222-2944 or Marie Martin at (508) 222-3436/bobmarie5@comcast.net with first names or initials. You are also welcome to contact the Parish Office.

ST JOHN'S CEMETERY

A Columbarium Wall has recently been added to our Cemetery at 165 West Street, Attleboro. This new section will be called "Our Lady of Sorrows" and is located in the back right of the Cemetery. The structure contains 24, 12"X12" Niches, in 4 rows of 6. Each Niche may entomb 2 small urns or one large urn. Please call the Cemetery Office at 508-222-9086 for information.
